Canadian Cars, 1946-1984 (1978ae) This book is rare and getting nearly impossible to find. It is an excellent reference for Post War Canadian variations of American cars, and other models, distinctive and much less common than those sold in the US. Pictures of selected models are included, along with about 150 pages of text, cataloging models and providing historical background.

Between its soft covers there's 159 pages profiling all the cars that have been built north of the border during the post-war years of 1946 to 1984. Although all the photographs are black and white, it's not so much the photography than the in-depth historical information that make this book so worthwhile to own, because heaven knows how little information has been written about Canadian cars.
